

Visitor map

South Shields Museum & Art Gallery

Entrance Level / First Floor

 The automatic door sometimes makes a noise.

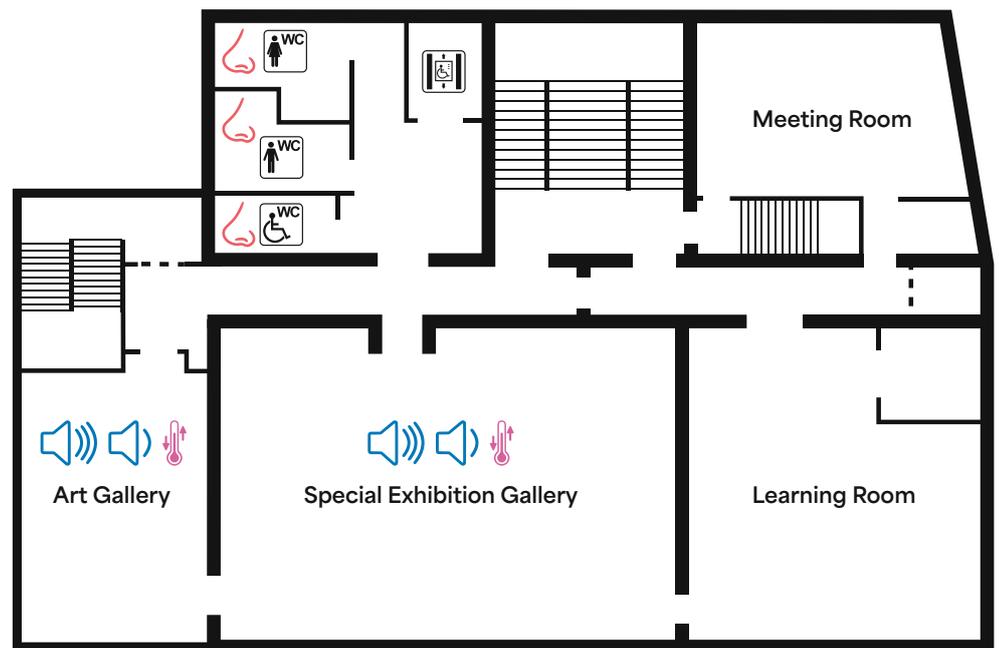

- The Treasures display includes taxidermy.
- Creature Corner is home to live spiders, beetles, reptiles and snakes.
- The arcade games at the bottom of the stairs, can be loud and the sounds can be sudden.
- The Changing Faces gallery has displays with sounds and background noise from the cafe.
- The Changing Faces gallery includes the gibbet, which was used for executions.
- The cafe can be busy with loud noises from the servery and visitors and the smell of food and drinks.
- There could be a smell of cleaning products in the toilets.

Visitor map

South Shields Museum & Art Gallery

Second Floor

- There could be a smell of cleaning products in the toilets.
- There might be loud noises and / or background noise from visitors in the Art Gallery and Special Exhibition Gallery. This will depend on what the current exhibition is. Please see the website for details.
- The temperature in the Art Gallery and Special Exhibition Gallery is often different from the rest of the museum. It can be colder or warmer depending on the current exhibition.